

Christine Tobin

‘A Thousand Kisses Deep’ is a programme of new arrangements of eleven Leonard Cohen songs. Christine has been a lifelong fan and her unique interpretations make an inspired celebration of the legendary Canadian singer, songwriter and poet. In her own songwriting, she specializes in idiosyncratic, highly musical poetic vignettes with a strong sense of story, so it's no surprise she weaves such magic with the profound, sensual and mysterious songs of Cohen. The band is a team of great musicians; Huw Warren accordion & piano (long-time pianist/arranger with June Tabor), award winning guitarist Phil Robson, Dave Whitford double bass, and Brazilian percussionist Adriano Adewale (Antonio Forcione band). There is a rapport between the players that goes beyond everyday musicianship working on subliminal and emotional levels. This concert won a prestigious Herald Angel Award at the Edinburgh Festival. "Christine Tobin is inspiring on her own material. But she is in a class of her own singing Leonard Cohen. Her new version of Everybody Knows is stunning...Gorgeous, affecting and deeply human"

The Guardian ****