

Liam Noble Press Quotes.

In Jazz Journal, Richard Palmer referred to him as "...a writer of considerable idiomatic and emotional range ...he knows the instrument's pantheon from Tatum to Taylor..."

"....a brilliant pianist."

John Fordham, The Guardian

"...Liam Noble, a musician who just keeps getting better."

James Griffiths, The Guardian

"...a brilliant pianist who hardly plays a solo without at least one turn of phrase that brings you to the edge of your seat."

John Fordham

Romance Among The Fishes

"Liam Noble's latest CD demonstrates that there is still something new under the Jazz sun... In this day and age of Jazz retreads, it's refreshing to encounter a genuinely original voice."

David Kane, Cadence Magazine

BRUBECK!

"Noble is a supreme motivic improviser, in the manner of Thelonious Monk, Ornette Coleman, Sonny Rollins and, latterly, Brad Mehldau" (5 stars)

John Fordham, The Guardian

"this CD will be an inspiration and a challenge for me to carry on in the avenues that you have opened."

Dave Brubeck – Music legend!

Brother Face

"...the music was constantly punctuated by sporadic claps, cheers, and people whispering excitedly to each other; never have I seen a more enraptured and enthusiastic audience."

Rob Edgar, LondonJazzNews